FETTER

Comment;

If a magazine originally done on a trial basis is pretty successful, it usually gets a second shot. Since you are now the proud owner of FETTER NO. 2, you can indeed assume No. 1 sold fairly well (which it did). To the people who bought it, many thanks, and if you really liked No. 1 (and hopefully like No. 2) and you'd like to see No. 3, why not pass on the knowledge that Kane Photos does some pretty nice magazines to a friend or two.

We'd really appreciate the help, D.K.

BUT KNOT FOR ME...

This story is so strange, Paula and Rosie don't usually even bother retelling it to anyone lest they be judged nutty as fruitcakes. They arrived at the old mansion early one morning in response to a newspaper ad soliciting applicants for summer employment as chambermaids. The mistress of the house greeted them at the door and ushered them into a strange sort of playroom for their interview. She told them they'd have to first pass a sort of security test before she'd hire them, and if they measured up to her strict standards, lucrative jobs would be theirs. Well, even though they came through the "interview" with flying colors despite the obvious strained circumstances, Paula and Rosie both agreed there must be an easier way to earn a living.

These photos may possibly shed some light on the age-old mystery of what some pretty coeds do for excitement on cold winter nights at an all girls' school with an early curfew.

Co-eds In Captivity!

A SURPRISE PACKAGE FOR WALTER

Louise just couldn't believe her eyes! The package had finally arrived. She'd just about resigned herself to the fact she'd been ripped off again by another one of those mail order specialty leather goods outfits. But here it was, and, when she finally ripped open the box, she was indeed flabbergasted by the contents. They'd made everything exactly to her carefully designed specifications. The elaborate body harness, platform bondage shoes, and leather gag all fit perfectly. And, more importantly, they finally allowed her to completely restrain herself from head to foot without the help of another human being. What a surprise for her boyfriend Walter!

What do you do when your only daughter starts locking herself in her room day after day for hours at a time? You spy on her, what else? And what do you see? You see your only daughter spread out on her bed with headphones attached to her head, a hash pipe in her mouth, and vibrator between her legs. What do you do? Watch her for a while. . . . and surprise her by breaking down her door. . . . and after apprehending the vibrator and hash pipe, and removing the headphones, you use whatever is on hand to place her in the most stringent bondage you can manage.

And once she's bound, you gag her so she won't answer you back when you're scolding!

And you take that vibrator of hers and stick it right where it belongs (wherever that may be)!

note:

We're sure you all love our photos and magazines. But now, in the interest of producing even better items in the future, Kane Photos needs the following:

1. Writers- of somewhat polished substance though not necessarily budding Hemingways to decorate our photographic images with words (for money, though not much, of course).
2. Artists- we need artwork: drawings, a comic strip, a layout designer, anyone who is talented and even more importantly dedicated.
3. Photographers: anyone experienced in the fine art of shooting fetish and bondage photos (porno hacks and nature photographers need not apply).
4. Models: any real, natural, honest to goodness, females with at least passing knowledge of bondage and fetishes, etc. willing to pose for the type of photos shown in this and other Kane Publications.
5. Amateur Photos- any photos taken by people other than professionals dealing with bondage and fetishism, high heels, etc. Please only photos done with the same good taste we try to maintain in our publications.
6. Props- bizarre footwear, corsets, rubberwear, special restraining devices, etc. . . anything from the 40's, 50's or 60's which will look splendid on our models. We are willing to buy outright, borrow or rent these items. We realize many of our readers possess valuable collections of personal ware along these lines and are very proud of them (and indeed with good reason are basically paranoid about letting them out of their hands) but we need and cannot possibly afford to completely stock ourselves with these items and must therefore look to individuals with these items already in their possession for help.
7. Ideas- any reasonable, or at least half-way sensible thoughts on what might be nice to see in a bondage magazine. Please, constructive criticisms only.

Now, after reading the above list, if you've gotten this far you're probably saying to yourself: Is that ALL they need? How about a jet or a 25 room mansion? But seriously, the only way we can continue to put together decent bondage materials is to receive the kind of help solicited above. So whether you have only a word of advice or a pair of 12 inch platformed spike heeled shoes to contribute, please respond.

A Gold Medal For Tammy

Tammy's older sister, Beth, has always wanted her to become an olympic gymnast. She has, in the interest of Tammy's success, been, at times, a bit hard on the young girl. For instance, to enhance muscle development, Beth will, at least three times a week, stringently affix Tammy to the exercise beam pictured here. The results are oft times devastating.
